

I would like to make clear how enjoyable satellite radio service has become. Never before has there been such ease in radio listening. In the capitalist world we live in, choice or preference comes with a price. I have chosen to pay for my radio programming and do not appreciate the "NAB" attempting to tell me what I will pay for or what programming I may listen too.